

DRESS CODE

A high standard of dress encourages respect for individuals in the school community. The GSOTA dress code guidelines are in force on all regular school days. Positive benefits of uniforms include:

- Uniforms encourage students to express their individuality through academic achievements, not outward appearances.
- Uniforms put the focus on academics, not fashion.
- Uniforms minimize the visible socio-economic differences between children.
- Uniforms create a sense of school pride and belonging.

Dress Down Days

Clothing on dress down days must conform to standards of propriety reflected in the school uniform. No offensive images or text, immodest cuts or fits, spaghetti straps or other attire deemed inappropriate by administration.

Uniform Violations

School administrators will determine if clothing is appropriate for school and complies with the dress code. If a student comes to school out of uniform (or dressed inappropriately on dress down days), the parent will be called to immediately bring the student a change of clothing. Habitual or excessive violations of the dress code will result in additional consequences.

Exemptions

Exceptions to the Dress Code shall be permitted when:

- A student's parent requests a reasonable accommodation to address the student's disability or medical condition. Such request shall be provided in writing and submitted to the Director for approval; or
- The wearing of clothing in compliance with the Dress Code violates a student's sincerely held religious belief. Such students and the student's parents shall submit a signed affidavit setting forth the religious issues and the requested exemption to the policy; or
- A parent/guardian notifies the Director in writing that the student's failure to wear clothing that complies with the Dress Code is due to financial hardship. The school shall offer assistance to students who are having difficulty complying with the Dress Code due to financial hardship.
